

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers.

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, notices of lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Does Not Include

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—52 times;—the bill is $13.25. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "I'll tell you" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note in that effect.

CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE.

When man knows how to match a ribbon, When woman learns to drive a nail, When man can thread a needle deftly, When mice don't make a woman pale, When woman gets off right from streetcars Instead of facing toward the rear, When man stops smoking bad tobacco And drinking sour-smelling beer, When woman doesn't block the sidewalk With spreading skirts and puffed-out sleeves, When man stops flirting with new charmers And to his lawful darling cleaves, When man can understand the baby And woman petting it talks sense, When man proposes a new bonnet And woman shies at the expense—

Phenomena like these and others May strike surprised observers dumb But they will know by these same tokens That the millennium has come.

BALLENGER, Jeweller

Mr. Tone Ross had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon. He was bugging along from below Market when an approaching train frightened his horse. The animal backed onto the trestle, and for a time there was a Chinese puzzle of horselegs, buggy wheels and cross-ties. Fortunately the engineer stopped his train within a few feet of Mr. Ross's outfit, and the horse and vehicle were gotten out without damage save a piece of broken harness.

LET IT BE DONE!

Suggestion For a Reception to Grand Master Thomas.

WARREN LARUE THOMAS.

It has been suggested that upon his return from the East a formal reception be tendered our worthy fellow-townsmen, Mr. W. LaRue Thomas, the newly chosen Grand Master of American Knights Templars.

The idea is a good one, and THE LEDGER heartily approves.

In doing this, our citizens will not be honoring the man, but they will simply manifest an appreciation of the honor that has come to Maysville.

This is the first time in all the years that even Kentucky has been honored with the highest Masonic officer in the world, and it is no small distinction that Maysville is the home of that officer.

The testimonial should take the form of a levee, to be held at Masonic Temple, supplemented by a collation to which all our citizens will be welcomed by the Masonic fraternity, who have been especially honored in having one of their local Brethren so justly distinguished.

To give form to the movement, THE LEDGER suggests a meeting at Masonic Temple Monday evening at 7 o'clock to arrange a program.

BUCK EWING'S MISFITS.

They Want to Wipe Out "That Stain"—Maysville Done Up.

They are anxious! And they would like to give us a fall! Yesterday Manager Watson received a letter from the Manager of the Louisville "Colonels," who are filling an engagement at Baltimore, asking for a date with the crack Maysville team.

And yesterday afternoon he received the following telegram from Manager Bancroft of the Cincinnati "Reds," which explains itself:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 5th, 1895. W. S. Watson, Manager Maysville Baseball Club: If you have 19th open write me Sturtevant House.

F. C. BANCROFT.

It is not known whether the Reds desire to play another game on our grounds or whether they wish to have our boys play them at League Park in Cincinnati, but it is certainly true that they are anxious to have another go with our boys.

They would rather defeat the Maysville team than any team in the National League, but it is safe to say that if they could secure a date with us there would be another bitter wall go up from the faces of the Porcupolians, because it isn't in the Reds' power to defeat any club that can play a little bit of ball, much less the crack Maysville Club.

There will probably be some five or six games played at the East End Park before the season closes, and even if it be only an amateur club our citizens would turn out, as there hasn't been a game here for so long.

SHORT STOPS.

The Maysville players again went down in defeat yesterday at Clarksville, Tenn. "Jum" Luman's Club is wanted for a game at Flemingsburg, but "Jum" hasn't on his uniform, and we don't think he is in baseball humor.

The Vaneburg Club defeated the Manchester at the Fair at that place yesterday by a score of 11 to 3. One of our good ballplayers, Mr. Henry Wadsworth, was playing center for the Vaneburgs, and used the stick all right, knocking a three-bagger when the bases were full.

Colonel W. O. Bradley will speak in this city Saturday afternoon, October 12th, at 2 o'clock.

A special train will leave tomorrow at 9 a. m. for Cincinnati in order to accommodate passengers from Maysville and points West.

Mr. William Bliss, formerly of this city, has sent to his brother-in-law, Mr. Simon Nelson, a barrel of preserves. They are from Mr. Bliss's Florida preserve farm.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the month of August were $1,700,000, an increase of $7,429 over 1894, and of $176,460 over 1893, but a loss of $217,780 as compared with August 1892.

The announcement of Mr. Simon M. Crowell for City Assessor appears elsewhere in THE LEDGER. Mr. Crowell is well qualified for the place, and will if chosen fill all the requirements of the office.

Three days have elapsed since the biggest tomato, the tallest stalk of corn, the juiciest peck of pears or the heaviest watermelon have found their way to the Editorial Den. What's the matter with our agriculturists?

Rev. Len Penrod, who shot one of his churchmen at Vaneburg during a dispute over the different styles of baptism, had the charge changed from felony to disturbing the peace, and on this he was fined $50 and costs, which he promptly paid and went free.

HAD TO PAY.

And the Ashland Dummies Are Kicking Their Feet Off.

Much comment and dissatisfaction prevailed at the Democratic speaking and barbecue held in Ashland a few days ago, because charges were made for dinner. Many who had walked for miles went home footsore and weary, because they did not have the necessary 25 cents to purchase the dinner they thought was to be free.

In consequence the Republicans are arranging to give a big barbecue, free for all, at the time appointed for Colonel W. O. Bradley to speak there.
